A journey where history, religion, archaeology, and science intersect. Objective, detailed, and passionate--Shroud Encounter was by the far the best academic presentation I've seen. Cole Cheek, Ph.D., Professor of History and Anthropology, Spartanburg Methodist College, SC

Captivated our audience and inspired wonderful dialogue after the event. Jeff Fazio, Assistant Director of Student Affairs at Penn State Schuylkill, PA

This presentation was fantastic! Put together with amazing detail. We spoke of this event for days after. -- Jeff Venekamp, Director of Student Activities, Augustana College, SD

Made the dialogue between faith and science come alive. To quote one of our senior students, "I have been coming here all four years and this may be the most memorable thing that I did while in college." James R. Mohr, Campus Chaplain, Westminster College, PA

"You could have heard a pin drop-- blown away by the whole thing. In a word, I thought it was GREAT!" Rev. Scott Wilkinson, United Methodist Campus Minister, East Carolina University, NC

So powerful, so cohesive, so balanced between rational truth, science, logic, and faith, that I was moved many times. Ken Southgate, Campus Minister, Wesleyan Foundation, Eastern Kentucky University

Had me on the edge of my seat and I could see that I was not the only one riveted! Lina Barbieri, Public Relations, DeSales University, PA

A phenomenal speaker who captivates his audience right from the start! The experience was truly amazing. --Rosemarie Lynch, Director of Student Activities, Warren County Community College, Washington, NJ

Using his story-telling manner he took us on a roller-coaster ride! Shroud Encounter opened not just the minds of those of us who attended that night but also our hearts. --Msgr. Steven P. Rohlf, S.T.D., Vice President and Rector, Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, MD

ALL of my expectations were exceeded--truly, a phenomenal presentation. Some even said it was the best thing they have ever witnessed on campus! Father Timothy Biren, St. Thomas More Catholic Newman Assoc, Minnesota State University, Mankato
